Capital District Habitat for Humanity (CDHfH) believes that decent shelter is a basic human need. Yet thousands of local families lack adequate and affordable housing.

The high cost of some rental housing leaves low-income families little money for basic necessities like food, clothing, or health care.

Moreover, if the rental unit is substandard, it can endanger the health and safety of its occupants, erode their hope and self-worth, and impair their children's ability to live up to their personal potential.

Volunteering with CDHfH not only helps low-income families, but also helps to bring communities together for a common cause.

- The Habitat construction site is open year-round
- Individuals and groups can participate
- Skilled & unskilled people are welcome; volunteers are trained & supervised by our staff.
- Schedule a TEAM BUILD DAY- Through this experience, your employees/members discover new and more effective ways to communicate and learn to work more cooperatively.
- Volunteers are needed for work in the ReStore as clerks and on pick-ups for goods sold in the store.

Visit www.CapitalDistrictHabitat.org for more information on how to volunteer.

The Habitat program provides the dignity and power of homeownership to those people who would not otherwise have the opportunity. Habitat for Humanity helps low-income families help themselves.

We build simple, decent houses with donated money, materials, and labor. We then sell the homes to qualified partner families, providing a zero-interest mortgage and below-market-value sale price.

By giving the economically disenfranchised the tools necessary to break the cycle of poverty, we create systemic social change.

"It would be really nice to have that dream come true to see my four-year-old play in her own backyard"

-Sabrina Kent

...We build homes
...We finance homes at zero interest
...We partner with our families

"The reward for the people who work on the house, then for the family that you are putting into their own home, it's immeasurable."

The ReStore
A home improvement resale store

The ReStore accepts donations of new or gently used building materials and then sells them to the general public. The proceeds are used to support the work of the CDHfH.

The store helps keep materials out of landfills, promotes recycling, and gives the public a place to buy excellent products at greatly reduced prices.

Visa and Mastercards are accepted and the ReStore is open to the public. Donations are tax deductible and pickup is available.

Volunteers are needed in the store and for pickups.
